BORP Adaptive Sports and Recreation is the Bay Area's leading provider of sports and recreation opportunities for people with physical disabilities and vision impairments.

Since its 1976 founding BORP has been at the forefront of adaptive sports and recreation, launching the careers of world class athletes and serving thousands of individuals throughout the Greater Bay Area and beyond.

ABOUT BORP

ADAPTIVE SPORTS EXPO

10+ Programs

BORP's Adaptive Sports Expo invites current and new participants and their family and friends to check out, learn about, and try up to 10 BORP programs free of charge—at three Berkeley locations. Expo is a groundbreaking Bay Area event:

Raising Awareness

Raising awareness within the broader community, providing access to specialized equipment and training, fostering community, removing financial and transportation barriers to participation, facilitating peer support, celebrating the achievements of adaptive athletics, and centralizing resources available to the disability community.

All Day Fun

Expo features sport demos coached by experienced athletes (Goalball, Wheelchair Basketball, Quad Rugby, Power Soccer, Pickleball, Fitness Classes) and a Family-Friendly Festival and Resource Fair, .

Three Locations

Participants can also drop by BORP's Adaptive Cycling and Kayaking Center, which features one of the world's largest collections of adaptive cycles and boats or reach new heights through BORP's Adaptive Rock Climbing Program.

EXPO SPONSORS WILL BE WIDELY PUBLICIZED THROUGH:

BORP's monthly newsletter

(approx. 9,000 subscribers) for 3 months

BORP social media

(approx. 3,700 followers across platforms)

The Expo is our largest outreach event of the year. Our inaugural Expo event in 2023 drew 173 participants and 57 volunteers from as far away as San Jose, Cupertino, Vallejo, and Yuba City.

Consider becoming a sponsor of this exceptional and unique event!

The BORP website

(approx. 1,500 unique visitors/month)

Bay Area media outlets

(2023 Expo was highlighted by the Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation, selected as a TOP PICK on Funcheap, and was featured in most Bay Area public event listings).
